 2 Teaching Positions Available - Direct School Hire - No Agency *****

Map Ammarit Community School is looking to hire two Native English Teachers for the upcoming school year starting in May 2024.

You will be joining a team of two experienced foreign teachers, from the UK and South Africa. Training will be available for new or less experienced teachers.

Location

- The town itself is very rural, but currently growing. You will have access to all the major supermarket chains, with a variety of restaurant and cafes scattered around town.
- The nearest beach is 10km from town, a fisherman's market takes place most weekends.
- From this location it is easy to explore both northern and southern coastal plains, with an abundance of beautiful beaches. If you like cycling, most of the roads have been or are in the process of being repaved to include bicycle lanes.
- The city of Chumphon is 50kms south of Map Ammarit, on the way just outside Chumphon you will find the popular tourist destination of Thueng Walean Beach, there you will find an abundance of foreign delights if you fancy a day or weekend away.

What kind of educators we are looking for:

- Must be active, energetic, and determined.
- Be able to work well in a team, not only with foreign but Thai co-workers too.
- Be kind-hearted and caring, to help students grow both academically and emotionally.
- Be willing develop and grow as a teacher.

The following teaching positions are available:

*1 Kindergarten Grade Teacher for the Intensive English Program (Preferably Female)

- There is a curriculum in place you will follow. You will need to prepare content and delivery based on your own teaching style.
- There will be a focus on phonics instruction, vocabulary and everyday English phrases.
- Every week will have a theme of sorts.
- Both rooms are fitted with a TV and air-con.
- Maximum of 25 students in each class. (Only two classes)
- 20 contact hours per week. Plenty of free time to prepare teaching materials throughout the week.
- Thai co-teacher on hand.

*1 Primary Grade Teacher for the Normal Program

- Prepare and deliver English classes to primary grades 1 - 6.
- Rooms are fitted with TV's and fans.
- 20 contact hours per week. Plenty of free time to prepare teaching materials throughout the week.
- Class sizes vary, usually don't exceed 30 students per class.
- Thai co-teacher on hand for grades 1 - 3.
- A selection of textbooks and previous resources are available.
- For Grades 1-3 the focus is primarily on phonics instruction, vocabulary, simple reading comprehension, etc.
- For Grades 4-6 the focus shifts more towards conversational English.

*Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited university.

*Benefits

- School takes care of and prepares all documents required for Visa and Work Permit application and renewal.

- Accident insurance.
