

Page 1

School:	Private
University:	N/A
Others:	Native or Non-native Speakers
Name of School or University:	RBIS International School
Location:	Bangkok
Working time:	Full-time
Write or Paste Ad:	We are in search of a Primary School English as an Additional Language (EAL) Teacher and a Secondary EAL specialist to join our team during this academic year. This presents an exciting opportunity to become part of our growing EAL department, further strengthening the groundwork that has already been laid. As the team expands, there is a strong possibility of assuming leadership roles. The ideal candidate should exhibit a fervor for both learning and teaching, possess a background in instructing EAL students from primary through middle school levels, demonstrate proficiency in providing pastoral care to students new to the English language, and have experience conducting effective one-on-one and small group sessions for EAL learners. Additionally, they should be capable of creating, supporting, and monitoring individualized language plans and using school tracking software to chart progress. Offering training to class teachers on supporting EAL students across the curriculum is another essential aspect of the role. Applicants must hold a recognized teaching degree with Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) or equivalent, along with a CELTA, TEFL, TESOL teaching certificate, or its equivalent. Please note that all staff will need to undergo a background check from their previous place of residence, as RBIS is fully committed to ensuring the safety of its staff and students. scottj@rbis.ac.th
Upload logo::	No
File png, jpg, gif:	N/A
Upload photo::	No
File png, jpg, gif:	N/A