Write or Paste Ad:	Raffles American School (RAS) in Bangkok is hiring motivated and innovative teachers for August 2023. RAS combines research-driven approaches with teacher-inspired strategies, focusing on individualized learning. The campus is located near the airport and offers a supportive community. RAS is part of the Raffles Education Group, with high educational standards. The school welcomes students from around the world, providing a diverse teaching experience. They are recruiting educators for all subjects and grades, offering competitive salaries. Teachers should be able to adapt to students' backgrounds and follow Common Core Standards. RAS provides visa reimbursement, insurance, and support for teachers. Interested educators can apply via email recruitment@ras.ac.th For more information, visit ras.ac.th. Note, we are in search of teacher assistants and academic leaders. Applicants specializing in core subjects who do not possess a teaching license issued by an American state should be capable of converting their credentials to American qualifications, such as QTS (Qualified Teacher Status). Previous experience in teaching at a formally recognized, Western-accredited school is strongly preferred. It should be noted that holding a Master's degree or PGCEi (Postgraduate Certificate in Education International) without QTS is not considered equivalent to having an American teaching license.
