

Page 1

School:	Private
University:	Public
Others:	Native Speakers Only
Name of School or University:	Satit Prasarnmit International Programme School
Location:	Bangkok
Working time:	Part-time

Write or Paste Ad:

Position: Part-time Keystage 3 Japanese teacher

Dates: 1 May 2023 - 4 July 2023

Being a great Japanese teacher here at SPIP is more than just having a passion for teaching second language learners Japanese. It requires a combination of skills, knowledge, and qualities that contribute to creating an engaging and effective learning environment that inspires and motivates our students.

Our great Eastern Languages teachers have a strong command of the English language but also their native language of either Korean, Chinese (Mandarin) or Thai. Our teachers are able to teach grammar, vocabulary, literature, and writing techniques. Furthermore, their teaching expertise possesses a passion for teaching and a genuine interest in the growth and development of our students.

To effectively convey their knowledge, our Eastern Languages department has excellent communication skills, thus communicating clearly and effectively to engage our student's ideas in a way that is easy to understand.

Our Eastern Languages department is flexible and adaptable to the needs of second-language and first-language learners and can adjust its teaching style to different learning styles, abilities, and age groups. This level of creativity and resourcefulness develops new and innovative approaches to teaching that keep students interested and motivated.

Patience and empathy are also crucial qualities of our Eastern Languages teachers; they understand that students learn at different paces and are willing to provide the support and guidance needed to help students reach their potential.

Overall, being a great Japanese teacher here at SPIP requires a combination of knowledge, skills, and qualities that work together to create an environment that inspires and motivates our students to reach their full potential.

Responsibilities:

- Planning and delivering engaging and effective Japanese lessons to secondary school students
- Creating and implementing lesson plans in accordance with the school's curriculum
- Preparing and marking assignments, tests, and exams
- Providing timely feedback and support to students to help them improve their skills and achieve their learning objectives
- Collaborating with other teachers and staff to create a positive learning environment
- Participating in extracurricular activities such as school events, trips, and clubs
- Keeping up-to-date with developments in the subject area, teaching resources, and methods.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree from a Japanese Institute or a related field of teaching Japanese (Native Speaker preferred)
- Teaching certification and/or a relevant postgraduate qualification (e.g. PGCE, QTS, etc.)
- Experience teaching Japanese at the secondary school level in a British curriculum school or IB School
- Strong command of English language, and Japanese
- Ability to plan and deliver engaging and effective lessons
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Experience working with EAL learners is an advantage
- Ability to work collaboratively with colleagues and contribute to a positive learning environment.

We offer competitive salaries (paid 2,000 baht per hours), working-day lunches and a supportive and inclusive working environment. If you are passionate about teaching and have the skills and experience we are looking for, please submit your application today.

Interviews will be over Google Meet or in person (if residing in Bangkok).
Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
Please apply for the job that you are most suited for; submit a cover letter and CV with recent photo to: phusinan.sa@spip.in.th
For more information, please visit our website:

Upload logo::	No
File png, jpg, gif:	N/A
Upload photo::	No
File png, jpg, gif:	N/A