They are expected to work collaboratively and actively contribute to the school's mission. The ideal candidate should possess the following qualifications and qualities: A solid understanding of the UK curriculum. Experience in implementing a structured phonics program like Jolly Phonics. Proven expertise in teaching primary EAL students. A positive attitude, a team-oriented mindset, adaptability, flexibility, strong interpersonal skills, and native-level English fluency. TSIS International School is conveniently located in Bangkok's Wongwian Yai district. Interested individuals are encouraged to visit our website to learn more about our campus and life at TSIS: www.tsi.ac.th Applications should be sent directly to js.principal@tsi.ac.th, with a planned job start date of October 25, 2023. Please note that applications must include the following: An email subject line stating 'Primary EAL Teacher.' An updated CV with contact information for three professional referees (limited to two A4 pages). A brief cover email specifying the year levels you are qualified to teach. A scan of your passport's photo page. The shortlisting process will commence upon receiving applications, and interviews will be conducted either in Thailand or online at the earliest opportunity. An appointment may be made before the application deadline if an ideal candidate is identified. Only shortlisted applicants will receive further communication. While historically our student body had Indian heritage, we have witnessed a growing enrollment of Thai and other nationalities, making TSIS a truly international school, welcoming students of diverse backgrounds, races, and religions.
