Write or Paste Ad:	Udon Thani International School (UDIS), situated in Udon Thani, caters to both the expatriate community and Thai students seeking an international education. Covering ages 2 to 16, UDIS follows the National Curriculum of England (NCE) and the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS). As an IB World School authorized for the Primary Years Programme (PYP) and the Middle Years Programme (MYP), and fully accredited by the Council of International Schools (CIS), UDIS is recruiting an experienced Year 2 teacher (6-7 year olds). Applicants should possess home country educational and teacher qualifications, teaching experience, lower Primary expertise, a Bachelor's degree, and demonstrate adaptability, flexibility, community-mindedness, and student-centeredness. Additional advantages include International Baccalaureate experience, ICT proficiency, familiarity with project-based and inquiry learning, experience in international school settings, and first aid qualifications. While knowledge of the International Baccalaureate is beneficial, a crucial aspect is the willingness to acknowledge student diversity and avoid a mono-cultural perspective. The school values teacher well-being, offering a supportive environment, competitive salary, accommodation allowance, professional development opportunities, health insurance, visas, work permits, and other benefits. Teachers are expected to be efficient, professional team members and ambassadors. Interested applicants can contact UDIS Head of School, Lindsay Stuart with a cover letter and resume. Immediate start date or positions in late July are available, and applicants must be legally eligible to work in Thailand or provide necessary documentation. The school adheres to high standards of recruiting practices, emphasizing child protection in alignment with the International Task Force on Child Protection recommendations. Email: recruitment@udis.ac.th Salary: 90,000 Baht
