Write or Paste Ad:	Warraphat School in Songkhla's Khlong Rien community is in search of a dedicated Native English Speaker (NES) for a full-time homeroom teaching position in primary grade 5, commencing either in September or October. The school's philosophy centers on being Active and Green, emphasizing a holistic approach to learning that combines intellectual, brain-oriented, and ethical perspectives. Their English teaching methodology is integrative, intertwining English lessons with subjects like math, history, and art. Ideal candidates should exhibit energy, determination, and proficiency across diverse subjects including science, social studies, history, and English. Collaboration and effective communication with both foreign and Thai colleagues, along with the capacity to design engaging activities and lessons, are valued qualities. Continuous personal development is encouraged, supported by mentoring and growth opportunities. The school offers 1-year contracts, from 7:30 am to 4:30 pm, Monday to Friday. Compensation ranges from 33,000 to 40,000 baht/month for NES and 30,000 to 36,000 baht/month for non-native English speakers (NNES), depending on qualifications. Additional benefits encompass visa extensions, work permits, free lunches, 2 weeks of paid leave per semester, unpaid leave options, and a monthly attendance bonus. Prospective candidates are expected to hold a bachelor's degree, teaching certificate or equivalent, possess at least one year of teaching experience or a willingness to learn and be trained, hold a valid Non-B visa (or the ability to obtain one from neighboring countries), and reside in Thailand. Interested individuals are invited to submit their CV, photograph, and a brief self-introduction video via email.
